This game is called "Deep Sea Fishing". Fill Up a kiddie pool or bathtub and add tons of floating toys (fish, ducks, balls, etc.). Then, have each child put on a blindfold and hold a butterfly net. Use a stopwatch on your phone to time them while they try to pick up as many toys with the net in 60 seconds. Have someone stand next to the child playing and help them empty the net when it is full. At the end of 60 seconds, count up all the toys.
